Prelude The Shepherds' Farewell Hector Berlioz

Welcome

Introit You Are Mine David Haas

*Call To Worship (based on Psalm 72)

Leader: Bring justice to the peoples, O Beloved, and your mercy to all generations! Teach us to be a loving people.

People: May the spirits of your people soar as the eagle; let joy abide in every heart.

Leader: May we know your presence as long as the sun endures, as long as the stars shine.

People: May we see you in the showers that water the earth and all that brings life to the nations.

Leader: So may we bring healing, peace, and new life to the world.

People: May every heart open to your love from sea to sea, and the fears that hold us rise up from depths into your light.

Leader: Long may you live in our hearts. Come, let us worship God!

(alt., Nan C. Merrill, Psalms for Praying)

*Hymn 411 Arise, Your Light Is Come!

(Children should leave for the church school program after the 2nd verse of the hymn)

*Prayer of Confession

Lord God, Now the work of the world slowly begins again, and we turn back to days full of projects and appointments, rhythms and routines. Our hopes and promises for a new year are now before us to seek. There are apologies to offer and receive; healing and peace to seek and build; new habits to learn and strengthen. There are sins we must acknowledge. Forgive us for the wrong we do. Lead us toward your light. May we come to know you better and serve you with true joy and thanks. In Jesus' name we ask it. Amen.

*Gloria Patri (Hymn 579)
