Prelude To You, O Lord, I Call Robert J. Powell

Welcome

Introit More Than Enough Lynn Shaw Bailey

*Call To Worship (Based on Psalm 1)

Leader: Blessed are those who walk hand in hand with goodness, who stand beside virtue, who sit in the seat of truth;

People: For their delight is in the Spirit of Love, and in Love's heart they dwell day and night.

Leader: They are like trees planted by streams of water, that yield fruit in due season, and their leaves flourish.

People: And in all that they do, they give life.

Leader: The unloving are not so; they are like dandelions that the wind blows away. Turning from the Heart of Love, they will know suffering and pain. They will be isolated from wisdom;

People: For love knows the way of truth, the way of ignorance will perish. Love's penetrating light breaks through hearts filled with illusions: forgiveness is the way.

Leader: Come! Let us worship God!

(Praying the Psalms, Nan C. Merrill)

*Hymn 142 (verses 1,2,3) All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name!

(Children should leave for the church school program after the 2nd verse of the hymn)

Prayer of Confession

Holy God, You see us for who we are today, but remember also the journey we have traveled. You hope along with us for the lives of purpose and joy we would lead. You know us, in our faults and in our qualities, and love us deeply. Walk with us now, as You once walked ahead of us, letting us hold your hand. Journey with us as our guide and friend. Laugh in the kitchen with us, now that we are the ones whose hands prepare the meal. Let us offer you our burdens, too, and our questions, now that so much falls to us to do. Listen and understand, forgive and encourage us. Remind us that all things are possible to those who walk in faith. Amen.
