*Call To Worship (Psalm 139: 1-6,17-18)

Leader: O LORD, you have searched me and known me.

People: You know when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from far away.

Leader: You search out my path and my lying down, and are acquainted with all my ways.

People: Even before a word is on my tongue, O LORD, you know it completely. You hem me in, behind and before, and lay your hand upon me.

Leader: Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is so high that I cannot attain it.

People: How weighty to me are your thoughts, O God! How vast is the sum of them!

Leader: I try to count them – they are more than the sand;
I come to the end – I am still with you.
Come! Let us worship God!

Prayer of Confession

Spirit of the living God, in moment upon moment, place after place, we find you once again. Our hearts fill and the way ahead is made clear. Yet there are times when we do not listen, and many more where we do not heed you. Forgive us. Guide us. Strengthen us to follow, that our lives may be a blessing. Amen.

*Gloria Patri

He is so thankful to the Women's Fellowship for the scholarship that helped him get started on such a happy intellectual and social adventure. He fell in love with the deep reading and writing of philosophy, as well as with Burlington, where he'll be staying to write music and practice with his jazz-funk-fusion band, Kudu Stooze -- which regularly tours the Northeastern corridor and is about to release its second album. If you're going to be up at the UCC's Silver Lake this summer, you might find him volunteering with his dad in leading the Still Singing conference.
