Call To Worship (Psalm 30:1-8, 10-11)

Leader: I will extol you, O LORD, for you have drawn me up, and did not let my foes rejoice over me.

People: O LORD my God, I cried to you for help, and you have healed me.

Leader: O LORD, you brought up my soul from Sheol, restored me to life from among those gone down to the Pit.

People: Sing praises to the LORD, O you his faithful ones, and give thanks to his holy name.

Leader: For his anger is but for a moment; his favor is for a lifetime. Weeping may linger for the night, but joy comes with the morning.

People: As for me, I said in my prosperity, "I shall never be moved."

Leader: By your favor, O LORD, you had established me as a strong mountain; you hid your face; I was dismayed.

People: To you, O LORD, I cried, and to the LORD I made supplication:

Leader: Hear, O LORD, and be gracious to me! O LORD, be my helper!

People: You have turned my mourning into dancing; you have taken off my sackcloth and clothed me with joy,

Leader: Come, let us worship God!

Hymn 11

Down by the Riverside

(Children should leave for the church school program after the 2nd verse of the hymn)

Prayer of Confession

Lord God, your Word reminds us that love should send us out in search of the beloved. Loving does not hoard or hunker down; it lifts – it liberates – and thus transforms. Yet we can be so greedy for it, not on those terms, but on ours. Where you would give us wings, we want anchors. Where you would offer freedom, we want control. Forgive us. Teach us to seek the joy of discovery over the comfort of false certainty. As we gather here this morning, remind us of the adventure to which you invite us, and for which all that we love well instructs us. All this we ask in the name of Jesus, who loved you and us perfectly, that all Creation might be lifted. Amen.
