

Join us for Worship Sunday at 8:30 & 10:30 a.m.

January 26, 2023

Dear Friends of Second Church,

This weekend, we will welcome Rev. Cydney Van Dyke, who serves at First Congregational Church of Old Greenwich, as our preacher. You can find out more about her below — I hope you'll make a point of attending and saying hello.

I also want to be sure to remind you that the church's Annual Meeting will be held after Sunday Worship, beginning around 11:45 on February 5th. Please come, but if possible, please also let the office know you will be coming. We want to make sure a quorum of members will be present. (Email Pam@2cc.org)

Annual Meeting

Sunday, February 5
after the 10:30 a.m. service.

All are welcome!

Meanwhile, yesterday's touch of snow and grey skies was a reminder that, while winter may come late or leave early in any given year, it always surely comes.

For me, that means scanning the Internet for pictures of those huts they build right over the blue, blue water in places like Bali...usually while I drink coffee in front of the fireplace.

Others can hardly wait to hit the slopes—and I think Mary McDowell told me about a hotel in Scandinavia that is built (and rebuilt each year) entirely of ice.

It just reminds me that there are blessings and adventures to be had in almost everything—whether they involve escaping the cold or embracing it.

More broadly, listening for how God calls us within each season of our lives is such an important part of our faith.

Wherever you go or hunker down, remember how deeply loved you are, and find a way to make the most of it.

See you in church,

Sermons are always available online:

Rev. Cydney Van Dyke (she/her) is Associate Pastor at First Congregational Church of Greenwich. Born and raised in Southeast PA, she graduated from Ursinus College in 2013 and Harvard Divinity School in 2016, becoming ordained in the same year. Before moving to Greenwich in October 2020, Cydney spent four years as Associate Pastor at New Goshenhoppen UCC in East Greenville, PA. As a pastor, she is dedicated to following the transformative, healing, and reconciling ways of Jesus for individuals, communities, and systems of power. This has led Cydney to be passionate about social justice issues, ecumenical and interfaith relationships, and cultivating personal and communal spiritual practices. And she firmly believes that church should be fun.

Cydney is an avid singer (often doing it unconsciously), lover of all things A Cappella, youth-led ministry advocate, proud Hufflepuff, and is cheese-obsessed. She and her partner, Scott, are proudly owned by their rescue cat, Penny.

Coffee and Connection Speaker Series

Saturday, February 4

10:30-11:30 a.m.

Please join us for coffee, conversation, care and connection. We also will welcome guest speaker Kate Noonan. During our time together we will learn centering techniques, meditate, be inspired by scripture and leave behind what doesn't serve our higher selves.

Childcare can be made available upon request.
Please RSVP to Jenny@2cc.org to reserve your spot.

Kate melds together Christian beliefs, ideas and understanding with her Hospital Chaplaincy experience to all those engaged where they are in their faith journey. Kate weaves the principles of Reiki and Esoteric Energy work into her retreats and private spiritual life coaching. Kate is a graduate of Yale Divinity School and has over a dozen years of pastoral experience both in Greenwich and in New York City.
