Dear Friends of Second Church,

October 6, 2022

We're delighted to share this week's Steeple News and invite you to connect with the many things that are happening.

Of course, we also hope that you'll be moved not only to attend the events that speak to you, but also that you'll ponder where you might get involved.

It can be tricky with schedules as full as ours.

Who needs one more thing to do?

And yet, wonderfully, sometimes it is doing that one thing that puts all the others in perspective, especially as some small, human moment happens, and we find that our minds go back to it all week long.

Our worlds and our hearts expand and are enriched.

It may not be easy, but it's always well worth it.

Come join us!

See you in church,

Max

Around Town...

SELF-CARE

Isn't Selfish

Resilience is the ability to recover quickly from difficulties. As friends, family members, neighbors, and helping professionals, we support those we care about to face adversity. But, what happens when the helper is overwhelmed?

Burnout! We are left feeling emotionally drained, often unable to function well at work or at home with little to nothing left to give.

Prioritizing one's own needs through restorative self-care is a learned skill that, with regular practice, strengthens resilience.

Please join YWCA Greenwich Domestic Abuse Services staff in exploring how a consistent self-care practice can build and maintain RESILIENCE.

In recognition of Domestic Violence
Awareness Month,
we invite you for an afternoon of Restorative Self-Care.

Featuring:

- Aromatherapy
- Chair Yoga
- Massage
- Mindfulness Exercises
- Sensory Stimulus
- Grounding Exercises
- Conscious Breathing

DATE Thursday, October 13th
TIME 12:00pm-2:00pm
LOCATION YWCA Greenwich
259 E. Putnam Ave
Greenwich, CT
