

Dear Friends of Second Church,

November 16, 2022

I was at the supermarket this morning early enough that I caught a glimpse of the Great Pre-Thanksgiving Restocking.

Pumpkin pie is my favorite, and I think of myself as able to enjoy a lot of it, but even I was a little overwhelmed by Just. How. Many. Cans. Of. Filling they were putting out.

To say nothing of the turkeys.

I know that some folks plan and provision early, so that there isn't too much — or at least, more than they like — to do next week.

Others enjoy the flurry of activity, the sending-out-of-the-sibling on Wednesday night at 9 p.m. to get some vital ingredient that they'd forgotten. Or what have you.

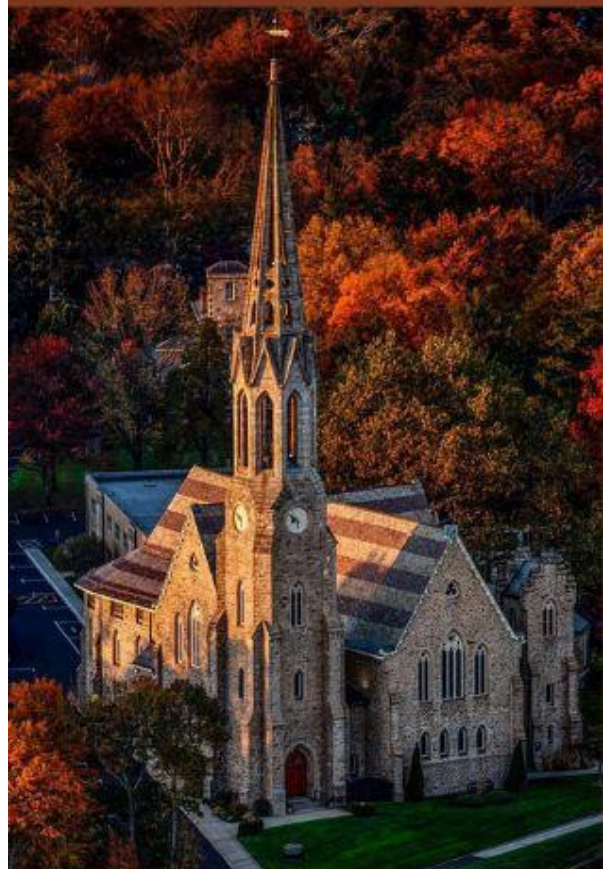

But however it is you do: whether you are gathering the clan, being gathered, or looking forward to different plans, entirely, many blessings as we celebrate Thanksgiving.

Please know how thankful I am for our church, our community, and all the ways in which we try to be good neighbors, kind helpers, and loving friends.

See you in church,

Max
