

Dear Friends of Second Church,

Warm thanks once again for all those who gave so generously of their time to make Homecoming Weekend a success!

You may not have heard that this year, our events extended into Monday evening, when we hosted the Association Meeting for Fairfield West — a gathering of UCC churches in our area.

The opportunity to welcome friends to our campus is always a treat...and all the more so this year, thanks to Matt and Kathy Singleton, Barbara Zappavigna, and Alli Hawes, who made “throwing together” a meal for 50 seem effortless. Bob Willett and Steve Walker were also a tremendous help. It was a great night.

Yesterday, Women’s Fellowship celebrated the official opening of Fletcher Hall with high tea and a presentation by Annette Grieco and Barbara Zappavigna, complete with wonderful photographs of how the work progressed. I was also delighted to receive an honorary remnant of the old carpet, which was a fitting tribute to the joy, humor, and vision of all who were involved in the renovations last year.

This week, on Wednesday afternoon our Youth Choirs will begin rehearsing once again; on Sunday we will resume our 8:30 service in the Chapel and our 10:30 service in the Sanctuary; we will also begin our pilot program for Middle schoolers in grades 5-8 (through the end of October) during the 10:30 worship service, which we hope to extend if attendance permits.

As you will see below, there is even more to tell you about as the new program year begins.
