

Join us for Worship Sunday at 8:30 & 10:30 a.m.

February 15, 2024

Dear Friends of Second Church,

No sooner did we put our Christmas decorations away, (although my tree is still up-please don't judge), we find ourselves on the heels of our first Sunday in Lent. It's hard to imagine.

Our weekly music selections will be added from the libraries of Bach, Mendelssohn, Fauré, and even Andrew Lloyd Webber, as well as some of the more current liturgical composers. Several of the anthems will be sung in Latin or German, and we will also share three contrasting settings of "Pie Jesu" throughout the Lenten season.

A consistent thread of solemnity will be present within these beautifully written melodies and text.

I hope that this year's Lenten music choices will add to the beauty of this holy season as a source of inspiration and reflection for each of us. I also hope that our congregants will embrace these anthems as supplemental prayers to their weekly devotionals.

Oh, and by the way...all "Alleluias" are officially silenced until Easter!
