Dear Friends of Second Church,

On Sunday after our 10:30 Worship Service, I hope you'll stick around to celebrate our Primary and Youth Choirs, who will be singing in the Chapel.

Before the pandemic, we always held an evening Youth Choir concert in the early spring, featuring non-sacred repertoire and lots and lots of individual songs — it was always a highlight of the year and was all the more meaningful because, for some of our young singers, it was the first time they had ever been alone on stage in front of a roomful of grownups.

This year, we've decided to offer a similar program after church, in the hope that the busy-ness of May won't interfere with anyone's ability to attend (or perform).

For your own planning, please anticipate the performance to run about 30 minutes.

Hope to see you there!

Sermons are always available online:

Elementary & Youth Choir Spring Serenade

This Sunday, May 21, we will be having coffee hour outside our Chapel.

At 11:40, we will begin to invite everyone into the Chapel to enjoy a short musical serenade provided by our Elementary and Youth Choirs.

Our young singers have been busy preparing some delightful musical selections for your enjoyment and they are very excited about Sunday's performance. The program should conclude by 12:00 noon.

We hope that you can join us!
