

Dear Friends of Second Church,

We look forward to welcoming everyone back this weekend for Homecoming!

By now, I hope you've seen a schedule of Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

You'll also see that later this month, we will launch a pilot program during Sunday Worship for young people in grades 5-8 who are ready to build on their experience in Sunday School and Children's Chapel, learn about faith and service, and above all, ask their questions.

Women's Fellowship begins its season with High Tea and the official opening of Fletcher Hall, with reflections on its renovation by Annette Grieco, our designer, who led us through every step of the way.

That's not all, of course. There are many other wonderful things happening, and we'd love your help in welcoming our friends and neighbors, and all those who stand in need of the fellowship and inspiration of a great church...which is to say....everybody.

As you and your family begin to make your own plans for the coming season, we hope that you will be led to find ways to keep growing in faith, and to find the perspective about our world and ourselves that prayer, deep reflection and study offer us so powerfully.

We celebrate the occasion of regathering after a busy summer — and celebrate the joy and purpose to be found in taking Jesus up on his offer to take up our cross and follow him.

See you in church,

Max
